The Education Fund Ocean Bank Center For Educational Materials

Sponsored by

FOR THE LOVE OF ART

Many of the pieces being auctioned today are made from materials found in The Education Fund Ocean Bank Center for Educational Materials, a warehouse and distribution program sponsored by Ocean Bank and run by The Education Fund. The Ocean Bank Center collects surplus inventory and supplies from the business community and makes them available for free to Miami-Dade County Public Schools' teachers for their students.

The creative process begins with recycled materials – everything from tools to milk jugs, scrap metal, cardboard tubes, tin foil, acetate, Styrofoam, music CDs, and even thread from water hoses. Equipped with these recycled materials, or “found objects,” students and teachers use their creativity to convert them into works of art such as paintings, drawings, traditional sculptures, mixed-media, and 3-D pieces, many of which are available for purchase today!

Ocean Bank, Sapoznik Insurance A World Company, Colonial Life, The Children's Trust, and Verizon are proud to host The Education Fund's For the Love of Art Annual Charity Auction & Honoree Celebration, featuring one-of-a-kind pieces of artwork donated by talented students, teachers, and professional artists.

2022 Public School Alumni Achievement Awards

Presented by:

The Education Fund is proud to honor the following highly accomplished alumni who graduated from public schools. Our Public School Alumni Achievement Awardees demonstrate clearly that a K-12 quality public education can be a path to greatness. We also celebrate more than a decade of Alumni Achievement Awards, showcasing the remarkable professional and community achievements of all present and past honorees.

Please join us in thanking all of the individuals for their continuing belief in public education and for their commitment to our public schools.

2022 Public School Alumni Education Achievers

Dr. José L. Dotres | Superintendent | Miami-Dade County Public Schools

As Superintendent of Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS), Dr. Jose L. Dotres oversees the nation's fourth-largest school district with over 40,000 employees and 330,000 students. Immigrating to Miami at the age of five, Dr. Dotres entered M-DCPS as an English Language Learner, graduated from Miami Senior High School, and began a long and rewarding career serving students, parents, employees, and the larger community within the school district that welcomed him as a child. He is a proven educator with a wealth of experience, having held multiple instructional and administrative leadership roles over the course of his career in M-DCPS and other school districts. On the national level, Dr. Dotres has made significant contributions to organizations such as the Council of the Great City Schools. Additionally, he has co-authored several articles featured in educational publications focused on professional development for instructional personnel and school leaders. Dr. Dotres strongly believes in the potential of each child, and he views his role as Superintendent as one that facilitates the creation of opportunities to help each one realize that potential.

Madeline Pumariega | President | Miami Dade College

Making history, Madeline Pumariega is the first female president appointed to lead one of the nation's largest educational institutions, Miami Dade College (MDC). A graduate of Hialeah Senior High School, her true love for academics and service excellence began as a student at MDC, which led to 20 years of service in positions of ascending responsibility, culminating in her role as Wolfson Campus President. Prior to becoming MDC's president, Ms. Pumariega was appointed the first female and Hispanic chancellor of the Florida College System, where she designed and implemented strategies to keep college accessible and affordable for Floridians. Serving the community outside of higher education, she was previously the executive director of Take Stock in Children, a statewide non-profit focused on breaking the cycle of poverty by helping students complete their high school education and advance into postsecondary education and careers. Ms. Pumariega views her new role as the opportunity of a lifetime because it presents her with the greatest ability to serve students who were just like her — looking for a chance to realize their dreams and succeed in the community they love and call home, Miami.

2022 Public School Alumni Public & Private Sector Achievers

Loadyn Bolado | Director | Allen Morris Company

Loadyn Bolado has always had a passion for helping people. It is the bedrock of her 15-year successful career as a Human Resources professional at the Allen Morris Company. Ms. Bolado remained committed to her professional growth by attaining the respected SHRM-CP and PHR certifications in Human Resources Management. She has served as a strong advocate for organizations, including Best Buddies International, Camillus House, and Children's Home Society of South Florida. While she has held several rewarding positions throughout her career, there's one that continues to stand out above all others — being a mom to her 10-year-old son Santiago.

is past president of Unity on the Bay, which recognized him recently with its Exemplary Life of Service Award. He also serves on the Board of Directors of United Way Miami and on Miami-Dade County's independent police oversight board. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Journalism and Political Science from the University of Miami, and attended Miami Dade College, where he was inducted into their Hall of Fame. The South Florida Business Journal has named him a Power Leader in Marketing and a Power Leader of Corporate Philanthropy.

Myrna Palley* | Leader in the Arts

Moving from New Jersey with her family as a teenager, Myrna Palley settled in Miami and graduated from Miami Senior High School. At the University of Miami, she met Sheldon, her husband of 64 years, and earned an art degree. Myrna's passion and appreciation of art steered her towards a philanthropic path to support the arts in any way she and Sheldon could, whether visual artists, dancers, actors, or musicians. "Money should be spread around, you can't take it with you," she would say.

For more than 50 years, Myrna served with several organizations, including as a founding member of the New World School of the Arts and the Miami Film Festival. A devoted benefactor, Myrna worked tirelessly throughout the community and beyond to raise money on their behalf. Such organizations include the New World School of the Arts, the Miami Film Festival, The Education Fund, and, at the University of Miami, the Lowe Art Museum and the Ring Theatre, to name a few.

Myrna also taught art early in her career at Miami-Dade County Public Schools. It is without question that Myrna helped change the face and cultural landscape of Miami. When we look at The Education Fund's vibrant arts programming, every aspect is influenced and generously supported by Myrna and her husband Sheldon. Myrna frequently judged our annual Art of Found Objects Exhibition, ensuring students were recognized for their artistic talents. She and Sheldon always sponsored, attended, and bid generously at our For the Love of Art Charity Auction. Myrna helped develop this annual event to support arts education in our public schools and served as its long-time co-chair. The Palley's home showcases children's artwork next to pieces from well-known artists from across the world, communicating the value of children's visual arts education.

We truly miss Myrna and know that her legacy lives on.

FOR EXCELLENCE IN MIAMI-DADE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Patron of the Arts Award

The Education Fund is honored to present Ocean Bank with our Patron of the Arts Award for ensuring that visual arts education thrives in our public schools.

For decades, due to Ocean Bank's support, teachers know they can shop for free supplies needed for their students' education. At the Ocean Bank Center for Educational Materials, they find items as basic as pens and paper and as unusual as telephone wire, cardboard tubes, or curtain rods used for art, science, or social studies projects. While the Ocean Bank Center started solely as a place to provide supplies for traditional classroom lessons, with Ocean Bank's help, it soon also became a haven for creativity, especially useful to visual art educators in our public schools.

Ocean Bank and The Education Fund began the Art of Found Objects Exhibition & Awards Ceremony to recognize students with talent in the visual arts, students who are often overlooked. Year after year, Ocean Bank exhibits hundreds of art pieces created by students and teachers and hosts the winning students and their teachers and families for an annual awards ceremony. As a result, more than 200,000 students and teachers have experienced the pride of being recognized for their artistic talent. One need only watch students beam, as they are publicly recognized at the Ocean Bank Awards Ceremony, to see how these students are gaining the motivation to succeed.

Yet, Ocean Bank's involvement does not end with the Ocean Bank Center Exhibit & Awards Ceremony. Realizing that art teachers need both free supplies and funds to develop student talents, Ocean Bank partnered with The Education Fund and our Art Auction was born. For almost 30 years, with Ocean Bank's support, local art collectors flock to this event and proudly hang children's art next to the works of Frank Stella and Jasper Johns. With all of the proceeds from the art sold going back to the classroom where it was created, art teachers throughout the county proclaim that the Art Auction often funds their entire program.

For their long-term commitment and generosity to arts in our public schools, Ocean Bank is truly deserving of The Education Fund's 2022 Patron of the Arts Award.

FOR EXCELLENCE IN MIAMI-DADE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Art of Our Programs

THE TEACH-A-THON

Presented by Wells Fargo

Great Teachers = Student Achievement

To raise awareness of the needs in our public school classrooms, The Education Fund implements the Teach-A-Thon. During this countywide campaign, business professionals walk in the shoes of a teacher, teaching an actual lesson or two!

It's not career day. Instead, business leaders experience what is happening in our public schools -- seeing the needs, struggles, and joys. Since the campaign began, we recruited more than 2,700 business professionals to teach in Miami-Dade County Public Schools. This rewarding experience creates empathy for teachers and students, and a newfound respect for the teaching profession and our public schools.

Using a Walk-a-Thon model, these 'Education Champions' tell the story of public education to their friends and colleagues to raise funds for the participating classrooms and other programs of The Education Fund. Since the program's inception, our Champions have raised more than half a million dollars to support our public schools.

FOOD FORESTS FOR SCHOOLS

This pioneering initiative puts almost 28,000 students in the center of sustainable seed-to-table eco-labs, teaching them to plant and cultivate superfoods used in school meals and at home. Children learn healthy eating habits, nutrition, environmental science, and other topics, and have the test scores to prove it. Sixty-seven percent of students exposed to these eco-labs have increased their knowledge of science, and more than half improved their eating habits. This program is located in more than 50 neighborhood schools where 92 percent of students lack proper nutrition and fresh foods and depend on Federal Food Aid.

To help students and their families, we've also distributed 220,000+ harvest bags full of fresh produce. Food Forests for Schools is an awardee of grants from the TD Ready Commitment, The Frederick A. DeLuca Foundation, The Batchelor Foundation, The Jorge M. Perez Family Foundation, Irma & Norman Braman Philanthropic Fund, and other donors.

“My students have shared the various ways their families use plantain trees based on their culture. We have learned that some families use the large leaves to cook, and some boil the plantain fruit based on the country. They are all very interested in the different preparations and can’t wait to try the new recipes they have learned!”

SMARTPATH

Inspiring all students to create a college and career mentality and explore a post-secondary education is the goal of the program. Operating in five underserved high schools, SmartPath includes college clubs that hold weekly meetings for students to research colleges, practice essay writing, learn test-taking skills, and improve study habits. Scheduled field trips to colleges and universities inspire students to set career goals and become college bound, while FAFSA workshops help parents and students apply for financial aid. Evaluations show participating students have a 25% increase in high school graduation and a 34 % increase in college enrollment. Thank you to Miami-Dade County, Valley Bank, and Miami Bayside Foundation for their support.

“This was such a great experience! I’ve learned so much through the college and career club and now visiting colleges. With the support of the club and our meetings, I feel like I have a chance to succeed after high school. Thank you for bringing us here!” said a student at Booker T. Washington Senior High School.

THE EDUCATION FUND OCEAN BANK CENTER FOR EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS

Our 11,000-square-foot warehouse is where teachers shop for free, filling their classrooms not only with art supplies and creative teaching aids, but also with pencils, pens, paper, books, and other essentials we take for granted. As teachers depend on us, we depend on businesses to donate their surplus supplies, remnants, leftovers, excess inventory, and materials. When your company donates, students benefit by having resources needed to learn and your business profits through a tax deduction of up to 200 percent.

By donating supplies or materials, you help teachers continue to develop our greatest resource: our children's future.

Since opening in 1993:

- $19.3 million in resources donated
- 3 million+ students benefitted

Special thanks to the donors who join with Ocean Bank in supporting this program including The Frederick A. DeLuca Foundation, Peacock Foundation, and The Kirk Foundation, Assurant, and other donors.

"It is always exciting to visit The Education Fund Ocean Bank Center for Educational Materials and see what cool materials I'll find for the classroom. On my last visit, I was able to get a box of reusable goggles for my scientists in class. Prior to that, I have been able to get poster paper, expo markers, pouches, and so much more. I cannot wait for my six months to pass so I can once again go find new treasures for my students. Thank you to all the donors for making this possible, every little bit helps!"
