OCEAN BANK CENTER FOR EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS

FOR THE LOVE OF ART

Many of the pieces being auctioned today are made from materials found in The Education Fund's Ocean Bank Center for Educational Materials, a warehouse and distribution program sponsored by Ocean Bank and run by The Education Fund. The Ocean Bank Center collects surplus inventory and supplies from the business community and makes them available for free to Miami-Dade County Public Schools' teachers for their students.

The creative process begins with recycled materials – everything from tools to milk jugs, scrap metal, cardboard tubes, tin foil, acetate, Styrofoam, music CDs, and even thread from water hoses. Equipped with these recycled materials, or "found objects," students and teachers use their creativity to convert them into works of art such as paintings, drawings, traditional sculptures, mixed-media, and 3D pieces, many of which are available for purchase today!

Ocean Bank, Sapoznik Insurance, The Children's Trust, Anthony R. Abraham Foundation, Norma Jean Abraham, Myrna and Sheldon Palley, Cindy Ziff, and Jonathan Symons are proud to host The Education Fund's For the Love of Art Annual Charity Auction & Honoree Celebration, featuring one-of-a-kind pieces of artwork donated by talented students, teachers, and professional artists.

100% OF THE PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF STUDENT AND TEACHER ART DIRECTLY BENEFIT THE VISUAL ARTS PROGRAMS IN OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Patron of Arts Award

MYRNA and SHELDON PALLEY

The Education Fund is proud to award our first Patron of the Arts Award to longtime supporters Myrna and Sheldon Palley, true champions for visual arts education.

When we look at The Education Fund's vibrant arts programming, every aspect is influenced and generously supported by Myrna and Sheldon Palley. Myrna frequently judges our annual Art of Found Objects exhibition, ensuring students are recognized for their artistic talents. She and Sheldon always sponsor, attend, and are generous bidders at our For the Love of Art Charity Auction, which Myrna helped develop as a long-time co-chair, providing needed support for arts education in our public schools. Their home showcases our children's artwork next to pieces from well-known artists from across the world, communicating the value of children's visual arts education.

More recently, Myrna and Sheldon's significant philanthropic investments are the fuel behind our creation of an "arts in education training space" and master-level workshops with recognized artists like Pablo Cano, famous for his found object marionettes. Due to the Palley Arts Pavilion, within the Ocean Bank Center for Educational Materials, students are now learning new genres, including "the art of found objects" from their teachers. As a result, students engage in complex artistic projects that build critical thinking skills, varied dexterity, the artist eye, and often team work, as art pieces become larger group installations.

We are forever thankful to Myrna and Sheldon Palley for their belief in our work, for their long-term funding, and especially for selflessly supporting thousands of local public school students on their road to becoming artists. The Palley's passion for the arts is transforming our community. We are pleased to award our 1st Patron of the Arts Award to this remarkable couple.
